DIRECTIVE
NUMBER 100-2

10 February 2000

COMMUNICATIONS AND ELECTRONICS

Emergency Evacuation/Destruction of Defense
Information Infrastructure Sites

1. Summary. To provide direction concerning decisions to evacuate and/or destroy Defense Information Infrastructure (DII) communications facilities in event of natural disasters, hostile acts, or civil disturbances.
 2. Applicability. This policy will be incorporated in the USEUCOM Communications-Electronics Operating Instructions (CEOI), all Defense Information Infrastructure facility Standard Operating Procedures (SOP), and in all general war and contingency plans pertaining to the European Command Area of Responsibility (AOR).
 3. Suggested Improvements. The Director, Command, Control, and Communications Systems, ECJ6, is the proponent for this directive. Users can send recommendations for changes to:

Defense Wide Systems Division, ECJ6-S
HQ USEUCOM
Box 1000, Unit 30400

This Directive supersedes ED 100-2, 27 December 1994.

d. DISA-Europe Continuity of Operations Plan, 1-89.

5. Explanation of Terms.

a. DII - Defense Information Infrastructure.

b. DISA - Defense Information Systems Agency.

c. DISA-E - Defense Information Systems Agency -Europe

d. EUCOM, HQ USEUCOM, and HQ EUCEM - Common references to Headquarters U.S. European Command, the U.S. national Headquarters for the Commander in Chief, United States Forces Europe.

e. USNMR/SHAPE - United States National Military Representative at the Supreme Headquarters, Allied Powers Europe.

6. Responsibilities. The authority to order evacuation and/or destruction of DII facilities is retained by HQ USEUCOM. When time or circumstances do not permit HQ USEUCOM approval, the component commander having jurisdiction for the site will exercise this authority and will notify HQ USEUCOM, information to USNMR/SHAPE, of actions taken as soon as practicable. In an emergency, where time does not permit contacting higher headquarters, authority and responsibility to evacuate/destroy rests with the facility commander.

7. Procedures.

a. DII facility commanders will decide on the evacuation or destruction of communications material in accordance with station SOPs and appropriate regulations.

b. Cryptographic material will be evacuated and/or destroyed on order of the facility commander or higher authority in accordance with provisions of NSA Manual 90-2 and appropriate Service directives.

c. Priorities of equipment to be evacuated or destroyed will be determined by the facility commander, as established in station SOPs and appropriate regulations. Buildings, towers, and antenna fields normally should not be destroyed.

8. Evacuation/Destruction Reporting. When emergency evacuation or destruction becomes necessary, DII facility commanders will inform HQ USEUCOM; component commanders; USNMR SHAPE; and Commander DISA Europe, ATTN: RNOSC (Regional Network Operations and Security Center) by the most rapid means, indicating contemplated action and what time the facility will cease operations in ZULU time.

9. Communications Restoral. If a DII station is rendered inoperative, alternate routing procedures will be implemented to maximum extent possible, in accordance with references 4b, 4c, and 4d.
